1. Definition of Flexi-Schooling

Flexi-schooling is an arrangement where a child attends school on a part-time basis and is educated at home for the remainder of the time. The child remains on the school roll at all times.

Flexi-schooling is agreed at the discretion of the Headteacher and may be withdrawn if the arrangement is not working in the best interests of the child.

2. Attendance Arrangement

The agreed pattern of attendance is as follows:

- In school on:

- Educated at home on:

Any changes to this arrangement must be agreed in advance with the school.

3. Responsibilities of the School

The school agrees to:

- Provide a suitable education for the pupil on the days they attend school.
 - Keep the pupil on roll and mark attendance appropriately.
 - Monitor the pupil's academic progress, wellbeing, and safeguarding while in school.
 - Communicate regularly with parents/carers regarding progress and any concerns.
 - Include the pupil in assessments, reports, and reviews as appropriate.

4. Responsibilities of Parents/Carers

Parents/carers agree to:

- Take full responsibility for the pupil's education on home-learning days.
 - Ensure that home education is suitable, safe, and developmentally appropriate.
 - Support the school's policies, including behaviour, safeguarding, and inclusion.
 - Ensure the pupil attends school on agreed days and arrives on time.
 - Inform the school promptly of any concerns that may affect the arrangement.

5. Curriculum and Learning

- The school is responsible for the curriculum on school days.
 - Parents/carers are not required to mirror the school curriculum on home-learning days, but learning should be appropriate to the pupil's age, ability, and needs.
 - The school will share learning objectives for the core subjects on home-learning days. It is strongly advised that these are followed.

6. Safeguarding and Welfare

- The school retains responsibility for safeguarding while the pupil is on site.
 - Parents/carers are responsible for safeguarding on home-learning days.
 - Any safeguarding concerns identified by either party must be shared promptly.

7. Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND)

(If applicable)

- The school will continue to meet statutory responsibilities relating to SEND while the pupil is in school.
 - Parents/carers remain responsible for provision on home-learning days unless otherwise agreed.

8. Review and Termination of Agreement

- This agreement will be reviewed on the date stated above or sooner if required.
 - The school may withdraw the flexi-schooling arrangement if it is no longer in the child's best interests, attendance is irregular, or the agreement is not being adhered to.
 - Parents/carers may end the arrangement by giving reasonable notice in writing.
